GERMAN CHAMPION

With humour and emotion, illusion, deception and his very own brand of magic, Alexander Merk charms his way into his audience's hearts.

At the World Championships of Magic in Blackpool (UK), the German Champion finished in the top 10 and met with an enthusiastic reception from the expert audience. The smart Berlin magician has a strong penchant for fresh gags and tricks that astound.

Alexander Merk regularly performs his programme in theatres, appears as a guest in variety shows, or hosts dinner shows as a magician-presenter who gets audiences laughing and marvelling with his special blend of magic. Telling magical stories, he enables his audience to experience something that is often lacking in today's fast-moving world: a sense of wonder and astonishment.
